

Viso

Product Description

Viso offers two ranges of sit-to-stand height adjustability in a lean, low- environmental impact table. Fully independent legs, a smooth and speedy mechanism, and easy operation makes Viso an ideal choice for a height-adjustable table that blends with a variety of other furniture products.

Features

- clean, light, design aesthetic
- industry's foremost anti-collision safety feature
- extended range electric with two adjustability ranges from a low of 22" up to a high of 50"
- fully independent legs providing maximum design freedom and space utilization
- extensive selection of colors, materials, finishes and surface shapes
- entire assembly is ETL listed.